

EPM Referencing Guide

v. 9-1-20

1. Cite all sources with in-text citation and list in the "References" Section at the end of the document.

- In-text citations: these appear within your text
- Reference list entries: these appear in a "References" section at the end of the document.

2. Use The Chicago Manual of Style author-date format. See this guide:

https://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools\_citationguide/citation-guide-2.html

- Note examples for in-text citations and reference listings for different types of sources.
- Note that electronic and Internet resources should be cited formally.

3. Cite Suitable References

- Ok sources generally include: academic journal articles, prominent periodicals, books, leading periodicals
- Do not use lecture notes as a source.
- Use with caution or qualification: advocacy group publications and websites.
- Cite the original sources, not a book or article that cites these sources. For example, do not cite Wikipedia as a source, but go to the original article that Wikipedia references as the source.
